

Business growth essentials workshop series

Create winning investment proposals

Learn to write persuasive documents that investors and funders will love

Business cases and information memoranda are the key tools you need to attract investors or funding partners.

As part of TIQ's Business Growth Essentials series, Deloitte Australia will deliver an interactive workshop providing you with the knowledge, tools and templates you need to develop a business case and information memorandum.

You'll learn about what investors are looking for and the areas you should focus on in your business to maximise value, and get expert support to develop investment documents that will stand out from the crowd.
